

MIXED USE DEVELOPMENT

PROGRESSIVE
REAL ESTATE PARTNERS

UP TO 5.29 ACRES FOR RETAIL
ADJACENT TO KAISER MEDICAL CENTER

NWC of Iris & Oliver St.
Moreno Valley, CA

THE OPPORTUNITY | Iris and Oliver, Moreno Valley, CA

The sale of this property represents a unique opportunity for development of up to 5.63 acres for retail use divisible to pad size directly adjacent to the Kaiser Permanente Medical Center in Moreno Valley. Pieces are available for sale, lease and BTS. The adjacent 1.31 acres is also available, contact broker for additional details. The site is zoned "NC" Neighborhood Commercial with a Medical Use Overlay (MUO) which presents a wide variety of permitted uses for development flexibility.

This site is perfectly situated to take advantage of the Kaiser Medical Center and their plans for expansion. The Kaiser adjacent to this site is currently developed as 130,000 SF 100-bed hospital and two medical office buildings totaling approximately 89,500 SF. Kaiser believes in the need of additional medical at this location and is planning a large phased expansion. The ultimate project buildout will be an approximately 460-bed hospital, outpatient medical office buildings, an energy center and structured parking for a total of 1,125,000 SF of development. It is anticipated that construction on the first phase will begin next year in 2020.

The overall demographics of this location are some of the best in the Inland Empire. There is a population of over 11,000 within a one mile radius and an average household income of over $110,000. While the existing demographics are impressive there is significant growth coming to the immediate vicinity. There are over 2100 residential units that are either approved or under construction within a 2 mile radius mixed between both single family residential and multifamily. See map of proposed residential development attached in this OM.

In addition to residential growth there are other numerous economic drivers in the surrounding area. The site is well positioned to take advantage of growth the proposed World Logistics Center (WLC), a 40.6 million SF next-generation logistics campus designed to attract the world's leading companies. The site benefits from being only ¼ mile from the Via Del Lago entrance to Lake Perris with over 1 million visitors per year.

This site is part of an overall larger offering that contemplates a mixed-use development including senior living (age restricted, assisted and memory care are all permitted) and medical use. Each component of the overall development compliments the other and creates a unique wellness-oriented synergistic opportunity for development.

WORLD LOGISTICS CENTER | Iris and Oliver, Moreno Valley, CA

WORLD LOGISTICS CENTER

Designed for large, global company's operations, the 2,610-acre, WLC campus will feature advanced technologies, innovative architecture, environmental design, water-conservation strategies and clean technologies. The press release said WLC is poised to become one of the preeminent business centers nationally and globally and will be one of the most sustainable developments, incorporating the highest environmental standards, of its kind.

The WLC campus design calls for development of up to 40.6 million sq. ft. of industrial, high-cube logistics facilities, office space and other support facilities. This site is at the junction of two major highways (SR-60 and I-215), which places it within overnight delivery range to 11 western states and within expedient reach to over 200 million customers.

A Highland Fairview press release says Moreno Valley is home to such companies as Proctor & Gamble, Amazon, Sketchers USA, Deckers Outdoor, Philips Electronics, Harman Kardon, Walgreens, Serta Mattress, Aldi Foods and Fisker Automotive. The management company said WLC will yield an estimated 13,000 construction jobs and 20,000 permanent jobs and will contribute approximately $2.5 billion annually in economic activity.

Highland Fairview says it will provide nearly $7 million to promote education, a library, training and workforce development for Moreno Valley residents.

DEMOGRAPHIC STRENGTH

Average household income of $78,090 with nearly 15,000 households at $100,000 or more; possess a highly educated workforce with 50% of residents in white collar jobs.

Moreno Valley is the 2nd largest city in Riverside County and the 21st largest in California. With a 4.9% annual growth rate, the population of 212,682 spans across 51 square miles. The average household income is $78,090, with 4500 businesses providing 17,000 jobs. The city has 6 high schools, 6 middle schools, 25 elementary schools, and two private schools. The three colleges—the University of California, Riverside, California Baptist University and Moreno Valley College—attract more than 40,000 students each year. In total, 44 universities and community colleges educate 225,655 undergraduates within 50 miles of the City Moreno Valley and is accessible through the California 60 and 215 freeways. The Perris Valley line of the Metrolink runs through Moreno Valley, providing quick and easy access to most cities between Perris and Downtown Los Angeles. With access to these transportation routes, Moreno Valley is a hub for education, growth and development.

The top employers in Moreno Valley are March Air Reserve Base, Amazon's Distribution Center, Riverside County Regional Medical Center, Moreno Valley Unified School District, and Ross For Less' Distribution Center. It was announced that Riverside County's hospital headquarters (Riverside University Health System) along with Kaiser Permanente both are expanding their facilities to meet strong regional demand.

As the City continues to grow, the commercial & retail sector is exploding. Currently Moreno Valley is home to over 2 regional malls and 40 shopping plazas. The largest regional mall is The Moreno Valley Mall with over 1.1M SF of retail activity and is anchored by Harkin Theaters, JC Penney, Macy's, & Sears. The second largest is Stoneridge Town Center at 579,000 SF of retail activity and anchored by Kohl's Super Target, Dress Barn, and Best Buy Outlet. Along with commercial & retail there are also Medical/Office as well as Industrial developments under way which would bring additional jobs and tax revenue to the growing city. Moreno Valley led the region in absorption of more than 8.4 million square feet of new industrial corporate facilities in the past two years. The proposed World Logistics Center alone offers 40.6 million square feet—and would be the largest industrial corporate business campus in California.
